

TANF and SNAP E&T ALLOWABLE EXPENDITURES

TEMPORARY ASSISTANCE FOR NEEDY FAMILIES (TANF)

TANF provides temporary cash assistance to low-income families with children. The family's monthly benefit amount is based on the size of the assistance unit and income.

TANF WORK PROGRAM

The TANF Work Program provides access to education, job preparation and job training to help parents and caretaker relatives be competitive in today's job market. To allow full engagement, the TWP provides a wide range of supportive services to help meet the family's needs. TANF recipients who are engaged in allowable education and training activities may be eligible for assistance with:

- Child care
- Transportation
- Tuition and Books
- Certifications/Exams
- Items/services required for work

SUPPLEMENTAL NUTRITION ASSISTANCE PROGRAM (SNAP)

SNAP is a food-based safety net program that provides a supplement to low-income individuals and families to purchase nutritious food. Monthly benefit amounts are based on the household size and income.

SNAP EMPLOYMENT AND TRAINING (E&T)

SNAP E&T programs help eligible SNAP recipients ages 16 – 59 prepare for in-demand jobs, help employers find qualified workers, and strengthen the state's economy. SNAP E&T programs help individuals gain education and skills that pay off in the labor market and reduce their need for SNAP. The SNAP E&T Third Party Reimbursement Program utilizes 50/50 funding (non-federal and federal) for allowable costs that are reasonable and necessary such as:

- Administrative costs
- Case management services
- Equipment
- Certifications/Exams
- Tuition and books
- Child care
- Transportation
- Uniforms
